Haskell McMillon
1938 – 2011

LINDEN — Haskell McMillon was born April 14, 1938, in Quitman, Texas, to Marvin and Dorothy McMillon. He passed away October 23, 2011. After a long and courageous battle with heart disease, he died October 20, 2011, at a Longview hospital, surrounded by his family.

Haskell graduated from Linden High School in 1956. He was retired from Cass County as a law enforcement officer, where he served as chief deputy under former Sheriff Bill Dowd and served as constable of Precinct One. He also retired from Lone Star Steel Co. as a plant protection officer.

He was a member of the Linden United Methodist Church, Cass County Peace Officers Association and Texas Rangers Association Foundation.
